The Oxfordshire

GOLF • HOTEL • SPA

The Oxfordshire, a previous European Tour venue, boasts one of the best golf courses in the country, enhanced further by the luxury 50-bedroom Hotel & Spa.

Being a former European Tour venue hosting the Benson & Hedges International for four years, the Andersen Consulting World Championships as well as the Ladies English Open, you know you're somewhere special.

World renowned course architect Rees Jones designed The Oxfordshire's Championship golf course, which was his first in the UK. He gave the course 135 bunkers and 4 unmissable lakes. With strategically-contoured holes that blend effortlessly into the natural beauty of the surrounding countryside, Jones's masterpiece is a links style course which is a challenge for all golfers of any ability.

Some of the games greats have teed it up here in competition, with Seve Ballesteros, Colin Montgomerie, Nick Faldo and Darren Clarke included. With such pedigree it is no wonder that The Oxfordshire is by far one of the best courses within the BB&O .

We never use temporary greens or tees.
